Swift's Specific CURES RHEUMATISM.

I have been a sufferer from Rheumatism for twenty years—at times with most intolerable pain. I had the best medical treatment and took all sorts of remedica, but without relief. Being reduced almost to a skeleton, and not being able to walk even with crutches. I was induced to try Swift's specific, and it acted like a charm, and I am to-day entirely relieved; have thrown away my crutches, and am in excellent health. I believe Swift's Specific will cure the worst case of Rheumatism.

GREENVILLE S. C., June 21, 1996.

The Specife Company:

Dear Sirs.—About four years ago I was attacked with what the physicians pronounced neuragic rheumanism, accompanied with eysipeins. My appetite failed mentirely, and I had an intermitting pulse and very irregular pulsations of the heart. A territe pain soon came into my chest and shoulders, and I became so helpless that I could attend to no business at all. The pains were moveable and would sometimes pass from one part of my body to another. Finally the crystpeins broke out on my left hand and arm and produced much swelling. I was stilleted for eighteen months, and, of course, used a great many kinds of medicine, but nothing gave me reflect. Friends finally persuaded me to try swifts specific, which I did. I noticed a decided improvement while taking the first bottle, and continued its use until I had taken about one dozen, when I found myself entirely recovered, with no sign of the disease loft except a stiffness in my hand, resulting from crystpelas. While taking the medicine I gained on an average two pounds of deep per week. I think your S. S. S. a valuable medicine, and frequently recommend it to the afflicted.

Very truly yours.

BUEK & HOFF'S CASE.

JUDGE HUGHES REPUSES TO REMOVE MR. F. H. McGUIRE AS RECEIVER.

to the United States Court-The Lyon-Zimmer Case.

Judge Robert W. Hughes, of th United States court for the Eastern district of Virginia, arrived in the city from Abingdon Monday and opened court yesterday. In the case of Meiss-ner and als. vs. Buck & Hoff et als., in requity, argument was heard on the motion of the Case Manufacturing Company to remove F. H. McGuire, Esq., the receiver heretofore appointed in the suit. The motion was argued by James Lyons, Esq., and Messrs. Coke & Pickwell for the most. rell for the mover, and was overruled by Judge Hughes without argument from counsel for the receiver.

TRANSFERRING THE FUNDS. The Judge then caused the following order to be entered in the same case : "It is ordered by the Court that all moneys and funds on deposit in the First National Bank of this city to the credit of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond in this suit be transferred to the credit of this court by said bank, the said suit having been removed from said Chancery Court of the city of Rich-nond to this court, and the clerk of this court is hereby directed to have a duly-certified copy of this order fort with served upon said bank. "And thereupon, on the motion of F. H. McGuire, receiver in this cause, t is ordered that the clerk of this court be, and he is, hereby authorized, upon filing with the said First National Bank a certified copy of this order, to check upon the fund to the credit of the court in this cause in favor of William Lovenstein, cashier, &c., of the Richmond Perpetual Building. Loan and Trust Company, for the sum of $3.997.41; also, in favor of the First National Bank for the sum of $2,765.12. and in favor of the Union Bank of Richmond for the sum of $4,545.75 in full of the amounts due said company and banks for wheat which had been hypothecated with them by Buck & Hoff and redeemed by said receiver under orders of the Chancery Court of the city of Richmond in this suit and prior to its removal into this court," The order further makes allowances for counsel's fees. The Lyon Zimmer Case. The argument of counsel in the case of Lyon Brothers es. C. Zimmer was also made on final hearing. Zimmer, who was trustee of his wife's property, had collected the annual income accruing from the same for about ten or twelve years, to the amount of some $9,000. Zimmer failed, in March last, he made a deed conveying his effects, supposed to be worth some $10,000, for the benefit of his creditors, preferring, however, this claim of his wife's.

The deed is attacked on the ground that this preference was fraudulent in law, the wife having no right after allowing her husband to convert the in come of her property without objec-tion for so long a period to make such a claim sgainst Zimmer's mercantile creditors.

The case was argued for the creditors by Messrs. Ellyson and Stiles, and by McGuire & Ellett and John S. Wise for the wife, and was submitted for final decision. The Court took the case sub judice, and will probably pass upon it in September or October. The question involved is considered to be quite Situated at 227 north Seventeenth street is the " Morning Glory " saloon. prominent rendezvous for the sons o Ham, of which Edloe Chappell, one of their number, is proprietor. On Sunday last a police officer, while making his daily rounds, came across one of these individuals who was rather " how come you so." When asked where he got his dram the happy son of Africa said, "At the Glory." His friend Chappell was then summoned to appear before the Police Court yesterday norning to answer the charge of keeping his place open on Sun-day, and this informant was requested to be present also and assist his Honor Justice Richardson in getting at the facts in the case by relating his own experience. Both of the parties were promptly on hand as per notice. but Chappell's friend had concluded that it would be improper for him to give evidence against his friend; so he ornished the Court with the name of a companion who was with him when he got the dram. This witness was sumnoned and gave such convincing eviience that Justice Richardson imposed fine of $25 for violation of the Sunday law. It seems that by going through the old Seabrook warehouse an entrance to Chappell's place may be so effected as to render detection very difficult. A BAD FELLOW.

Page Morris, a notorious character was before the court on the three charges of trespassing on the premise of Frank Knott and stealing a lot o iron therefrom, violently resisting Po iceman J. H. Harris in the discharge of his duties, and assaulting and abusing Sallie Gray. Monday Officer Harri was called upon to arrest the accused for stealing iron from Mr. Knott. He found Morris in a back yard, and at tempted to convey him to the Third police-station, but Morris resisted vio lently. Assistance was offered the officer, and while the two men were trying to master him Morris bit the of ficer very badly through the hand, in-licting a painful wound. The men at last succeeded in making him yield, and carried him to the station-house, where he was closely confined until the time arrived to take him to court yes terday morning. The evidence being conclusive in the first two cases Morris was sent to jail for thirty days for stealing the iron, and sent on to the grand jury to answer the charge of reisting the officer. The charge against him of assault and battery was dismissed.

Washington Walker (colored), who Washington Walker (colored), who was carried from the jail here to the City Almshouse in Richmond Monday, died at the latter place soon after 12 o'clock that night. It will be remembered that last Saturday night about 9:45 o'clock Walker was shot at the corner of Twelfth and Porter streets by some person unknown. He was talking with a colored woman and they engaged in a scuffie. She was heard to make threats, and almost immediately three pistol shots were fired in rapid succe Just after the shooting a man and woman ran down Twelfth street. Walker was soon taken to the city iail, where Drs. Ingram and Mathews made an examination of the wound, and found that the ball entered the angle of the lower jaw, left side, passed through the bone, and deflected, probably to the base of the brain or spinal cord, producing paralysis of the right side.

Walker was in a semi-unconsciou condition, and never spoke after he was shot. At first it was thought that a woman did the shooting, but now it is the general belief that a man did it in defence of a female friend, whom Wal-

The Old Dominion Cotton-Mills Com-

In fact, it is more than probable that they have not decided what they will do in the matter. So far their insurance is only partially settled. They hope, however, and expect to have it all adjusted in the course of the next two or three weeks, and then they will determine about rebuilding. It is to be hoped that the factory will be rebuilt at once. Two hundred or more women were employed there, most of whom have no other means of support, and they can ill afford to lose the time.

A STREET-SHOOTING. CEGRGE BANNISTER TWICE WOUNDED

BY JOSEPH SHEPHERD.

Result of a Row Wear the Theatre Corner Flight of Shepherd, &c., &c., &c.

Last night about a quarter to 10 clock considerable excitement was created by a shooting at the corner of Seventh and Broad streets, the victim being Mr. George Bannister, the proprietor of a restaurant and bar-room on Governor near Franklin street. As soon as he was shot—in the left breast and left forearm—Bannister was helped into Krause's saloon, and in reply to the question, "George, who shot y he said, "Preston Nuckols and Joe Shepherd shot me." ONE VERSION OF THE SHOOTING.

A man who states that he was with Bannister when shot said: "We were coming down Broad street. I had hold of his arm on one side and another man on the other side. When we had nearly reached the confectionary under the Theatre we saw Joe Shepherd leaning against a post near the Theatre. Bannister remarked, good-naturedly: 'here's Shepherd now.' Shepherd stepped back about five feet and fired at Bannister. The latter threw his coat open with both hands and said : ' Here, our 'em all in me.' Shepherd then fired another shot after making one step BANNISTER'S STATEMENT.

After being taken into Krause's saoon Bannister was laid on a table, and Drs. Oppenheimer, Smith, and Michaux examined the wounds. Bannister complained principally of pain in his left arm. In reply to questions asked he said that he was playing roulette in Johnson's, on Seventh street between Broad and Grace, and when he came down stairs he went up to Nuckols, who was on the sidewalk, and told the latter that he bad treated him (Banmister) badly. Then Shepherd, who stood near by, said: "Shoot the son of b-." Nuckols drew a pistol and fired two shots. It was evident from Bannister's statement that he had been drinking. and that his thoughts were not clear or concentrated. After awhile he said that when shot the man who did the firing was standing on the other side of the street. At one time he exclaimed : "I'll kill Nuckols before morning." The shooting was done with a twentywo calibre pistol.

NUCKOLS ARRESTED. About half-past 10 o'clock Mr. Preston Nuckols, who is a sporting-man, was arrested and lodged in the Second station-house. A reporter of the Dispatch called at the station and found him seated by a window smoking a cigar and talking to two gentlemen. When told that a reporter wanted to see him he came forward, say-Ree "A newspaper-man wants ing. see the desperado?" He talked in cheerful way about the occurrence, and seemed not in the slightest degree alarmed about the result of the case so far as he was concerned. He denied all knowledge of the shooting, except that he heard the two shots fired. said he was standing on Seventh street near Broad, by the new buildings. when Bannister and another man passed bim, arm in arm.

GENERAL REPORT. The general version of the immediate rested in Petersburg last Saturday.

Rev. A. Binga, Jr., pastor of the First African church, is a delegate to men walked up to Broad street; that difficulty is that Bannister came out of the shooting took place near the on Seventh street, about on a line with the front wall of the Theatre; that the man who did the shooting was Joe Shepherd, also a sporting man; and that as soon as he (Shepherd) fired the two shots he ran rapidly away; that Dr. Brock was sent for to attend the wounded man, and when he arrived Bannister exclaimed, "Here, Doctor, come here. Ah, he'll fix me all right. a back to his home.

Bannister was removed in Reports as to the cause are very conflicting. One rumor says that Bannister said to Nuckols : " Pres., you are a very good man; you have whipped Collie and several others in your time, but you can't whip me; that is, in a square, band-to-band fight," upon Shepherd said, "Shoot him, Pres, shoot him." Shepherd then shot him. Another account is that the difficulty first originated in Johnson's saloon over a game of roulette and faro. They broke in the glass of the door by the scuille; then they went outside, and on the sidewalk were some chairs. There the difficulty was renewed, and both men seized chairs, but friends parted went up to Broad street and crossed over to the Theatre corner, near which, on Seventh street, Shepherd met Bannister and they again got to fussing, and Shepherd fired two shots. One ball is said to have made a mark on the Theatre wall. The two wounds were probably made by one ball. Bannister says five shots were fired, but he probably mistaken. A number of paries say they only heard one. THE WOUNDS.

Drs. Brock and Oppenheimer are under the impression that Mr. Bannister was holding his arm out as if to ward off a blow and that the same ball made both wounds-that is, that it went through the fleshy part of the left forearm and struck the left shoulder, where broke the skin, but its force was so near spent that it did not enter. Neither of the wounds is at all dangerous. BAIL REFUSED.

After Nuckols had been arrested and taken to the station-house Justice D. C. Richardson was sent for, who refused to bail the accused. Shepherd had not been arrested at midnight.

Sentence Commuted Several months since Arthur Ferguson, commonly called "Booby" Fer-guson, was tried before the Hustings Court of this city for a felonious asault with an axe on a colored man. It was shown that he had been eccentric in his conduct from early youth. The jury found a verdict against him of one year in the penitentiary. Afterwards committee of magistrates adjudged him insane and recommended his committal to the Central Lunatic Asylum. Thither he was accordingly sent. He was returned to the jail of this city a few days since as cured. On the petition of those acquainted with the men-tal condition of the inculpated party, as well as of those participating in the rial, Governor Lee on Monday commuted the original sentence to a few months' incarceration in the city jail. A sister was several years since sent to the Central Lunatic Asylum and is

THE DESPERATE CRIMINAL CARDWELL STILL AT LABOR.

The Reward Fails to Bring Him-Journalistic-Military-Railroad Notes-Political Matters.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., August 3.— Nothing has ever been heard of John Cardwell, the desperate criminal who escaped last week from jail at Wilkesboro'. It was expected by the Gov-ernor that the reward of $200 would secure him. Search for him yet con-tinues, but even such scoundrels as he have friends who always do their utmost to defeat justice.
P. M. Hale, so well known as a newspaper-man, is evidently in a criti-cal condition with cancer of the tongue. He is now at Fayetteville, and many of his friends never expect to see him alive sgain, as they think his death is only a question of weeks or months at furthest.

Last winter Mr. Bonitz, editor of the Goldsboro' Messenger, sold a half in-terest in that valuable paper to J. Howard Brown. The latter is a north-ern man. In to-day's issue of the Messenger Mr. Bonitz announces that he has again become sole owner. His views and those of Brown, it appears, did not harmonize. SEARCHING FOR GOLD.

Parties are searching for gold near Fayetteville. The belief has arisen hat there are valuable deposits near that place. The White Sulphur Springs Hotel, in Haywood county, is to celebrate the anniversary of its burning by a ball next Tuesday.

The public school-house near Clinton, Sampson county, was burned yesterday.

It has been very curious to observe how quickly and to what a high pitch the war feeling has been excited by the news from Mexico. It is one proof that North Carolinians are by in a fighting people. Of course there is but a very remote possibility of war, yet the people are certainly eager for it, and some condemn what they term the slowness of the Government to move in such matters. A QUESTION.

An interesting question has grown out of this talk, this being whether the Governor has the right to send his troops upon the requisition of the President out of the State, or whether he must call for volunteers. The troops are regularly enlisted for five years. It is the opinion that the enlistment is for any service.

A great number of people left for the State fruit-fair this evening, and it now appears that there will be as large an attendance as was expected. The fair opens at 10 o'clock to-morrow with an address of welcome by George M. Rose. Octavius Coke, an eloquent speaker, responds.

RAILROAD NOTES. There has arisen fresh talk about the proposed extension of the lease of the North Carolina railroad to the Richmond and Danville road. The news has excited comment in all parts of the State. There are no new developments. The president of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad, which is spoken of as being wanted by the Richmond and Danville, was here yesterday and saw the Governor. The extension of the line of the Western North Carolina road ject of having a grand through line di- two pills every night for a week are sufrectly under one management. It will now occasion no surprise if the lease of the North Carolina road is extended,

Carolina road is secured for a long term of years. Conversing with abroker to-day, your correspondent was somewhat astonished at being informed that a prominent broker in New York manipulated the State bonds daily, and in a great part fixed the prices by such manipulation. The matter was inquired about at the Treasury, but the people there, of course, knew nothing about it officially. While there has been a steady, general advance in all our securities, yet four and six per cent, bonds have fluctuated. The broker in New York has had large

The rains are very favorable to the cotton, and the news to-day in this section of the State is of such a character as to indicate an average crop with a continued favorable season. POLITICS.

Some politicians speak with alarm of the growing crop of Independent candidates. There does seem to have developed a tendency towards Independentism in some sections in the past ten days, but very few if any of the candidates have any prospect of success. There will be discontent in various shapes until autumn. The people will then see the unspeakable folly of giving the Radicals and Independents swing, and they will be snowed under. These were the words of one of the most prominent Democrats in the State to-day : There need be no fear of Demecratic losses, but party lines must be drawn as closely as if it were a great campaign year.
